BID FOR RACE HATRED.

AFTER THE ELECTION next November, when the Republicans are casting about for the causes that led to their defeat, they will not overlook the "negro plank" that found its way into their national platform. It is doubtful if a more senseless or vicious plank was ever adopted by a party in the history of American politics. If it has any object at all it is to array the blacks against the whites for the benefit of the Republican party. It means anything it is an appeal to the passions of the colored people. It would be difficult for a party to stoop lower to secure votes than the Republican party has done in this instance.

The worst thing said about William J. Bryan by his most bitter enemy in the most bitter day of the campaign of 1896 was that he was trying to array the west against the east; the poor against the rich. This charge was based on scattered fragments of things said in the heat of debate. It was wholly unjustified. But here is the entire Republican platform of 1896, making a deliberate attempt to array the north against the south and the negro against the white man for party gain.

It is asserted and not denied that Theodore Roosevelt is personally responsible for the Republican platform of 1896. He either wrote it himself or passed upon every line of it before it went to the convention. If this is true and the president gave this plank his approval, with a full knowledge of what the consequences must be, he should on this showing alone be driven from office as a menace to the peace of the country.

This is the plank:
"We favor such congressional action as shall determine whether by special discrimination the elective franchise in any state has been unconstitutionally limited, and if such is the case, we demand that the representation in congress and in the electoral college shall be proportionally reduced, as directed by the constitution of the United States."

It will be noted that this entire declaration swings around the little word "if." This cowardly "if" is set up and denounced as though it shielded some horrible crime. It would have been just as brave and just as sensible for these Republican platform makers to have said: "If the people of any of the states are feeding their babies to the hogs, we demand that congress put an end to the practice by cutting down the representation of these states."

Negroes have been shut out from the ballot box in Virginia, North and South Carolina, Alabama, Mississippi and Louisiana. This has been done by setting up an educational qualification. This is a fact admitted. It is a fact that the southern states have been reduced to a condition of inferiority. The Republicans who wrote the "negro plank" knew what had been done. If they considered it right, they should have endorsed it; if they considered it wrong, they should have denounced it; if they had no opinion on the subject, they should have kept quiet. They had no right to make an appeal to ignorance and passion, and then hide behind a cowardly "if."

The southern states named above took the bait from the negro by the power given them by the law of the land. If the law was violated in the matter, that is a question for the courts to settle and not a congressional committee as this senseless plank would have the colored people believe. The clear intention of this plank is to make the negroes of the country, especially of the doubtful states, believe that if they keep right on voting the Republican ticket this congressional committee will go south after the election and turn all the offices over to their brethren. The negroes are also to get revenge on the whites of the south by helping take away their votes in congress and the electoral college.

People in Utah have little conception of the feeling that has been aroused in other parts of the country over this matter. Under the wise policy of President McKinley, especially during the Spanish-American war, the north and south were brought close together. Mutual trust was re-established and the sections that had been long estranged began to rely on each other for sympathy and help. In three years President Roosevelt has done much to destroy this good feeling. His climax in the adoption of this inflammatory race issue plank is unwise, unstatesmanlike, unpatriotic.

Unless all present indications are at fault the political effect of this plank will be disastrous to the Republican cause. It has often been said that the Democrats always make a blunder at the right time to help the Republicans into power. This order must be reversed. Certainly this blunder of the Republicans casts into the shadow the worst the Democrats ever did. People north and south resent this vicious play on the passions of a race in the hope of winning votes. Business men who have large dealings between the sections and who realize the disastrous effect of such negotiations on trade, are making their influence felt to the detriment of the Republican cause. The "negro plank" may be relied upon to do its full share in bringing about the downfall of the Republican party in the nation this year.

A LETTER TO BE PROUD OF.

HOW the mind of Chairman Taggart of the Democratic national committee must have leaped back over the years that have gone when he received a few days after the campaign management had been placed in his hands, a letter from Mrs. Eliza Carruthers, to whom he once went to school. Mrs. Carruthers wrote:

Allow me in all sincerity to congratulate you. I can see you yet. You were a little boy sitting in the front seat of the old school house in grade A, grammar department, and after school taking private lessons with me in order to keep up so often to work in daily labor. I tell you, Thomas, the men of the nation are made of boys of such stamina as you exhibited.

That your career in life may continue to be successful, having truth, honor and morality upon your side, in the fear of God, that you and I may render a good account to the Master at last, is my sincere desire.

There can't be anything seriously wrong about a man who can get such a letter as that from an old school teacher. And we venture the opinion that, though Mr. Taggart must have received many hundreds of letters and telegrams of congratulation he has not received one of which he feels proud. And he may well be proud of it.

NEW CHURCH SALOON.

BISHOP POTTER of New York City apparently believes in a literal application of Solomon's injunction to "Give strong drink unto him that is ready to perish, and wine unto those that be of heavy hearts." Let him do that, and he will be remembered as a benefactor of the world. But, for those who desire to forget that "wine is a mocker; strong drink is raging; and who-ever is deceived thereby is not wise."

There will be a wide diversity of opinion as to the wisdom, the propriety, of the action of Bishop Potter in sanctioning the opening of a saloon in New York City. This is the greatest social movement New York has ever known, said the good bishop. "It is a movement every one of you must take into account if you would save the republic." Fancy saving the republic by selling people whiskey and beer and wine.

But, we are told by the supporters of the Potter grog shop movement only pure whiskey, pure wine and pure beer will be sold in the ecclesiastical emporium. Wonder if it has occurred to these undoubtedly conscientious churchmen that it is just as easy to become intoxicated through indulgence in pure whiskey, wine and beer as through indulgence in inferior articles of that nature. It seems to us that no valid defense can be made of the church saloon. Whenever a church opens a saloon it declares that the saloon is necessary to the human existence. By just that much it adds to the temptations that beset weak humanity.

It will not do to say that New York's new church saloon will be conducted in an orderly manner, that it will not be kept open on Sunday, that men will not be allowed to drink there enough to become intoxicated. Those things are all understood. The main fact is that a new saloon is a new temptation under any circumstances. A church saloon is a stronger temptation than an ordinary saloon because men will go to a church saloon and drink who would not go to an ordinary rum shop. The failure of Bishop Potter's "reform" experiment seems almost certain.

ONE EFFECT OF "BEDELIA."

A BOY who was riding in a crowded car that was part of an elevated train in New York City the other day began whistling the once fetching strains of "Bedelia." With his lips beautifully puckered and his lungs working at their full capacity the boy whistled the strains of the popular, the popular, the popular song. Finally Louis Watrin politely requested the lad to "dry up his infernal racket."

Mr. Watrin had evidently heard "Bedelia" at Naumess, Michael Kerns heard Mr. Watrin tell the boy to be quiet. Mr. Kerns apparently had not heard enough of "Bedelia," so he suggested that Mr. Watrin attend to his own business. The result is thus described by a New York newspaper:

"The men argued awhile and they came to blows. They fought all over the car, trampled over other people's feet, knocked one man's hat out of the window, and smashed a pane of glass. Policeman Halley arrested the two belligerents, but the mobman whistled the riot signal and the crowd went to the one Hundred and Thirty-eighth street station."

The reserves, according to the account, were able to quell the riot without killing anybody, but it was a close shave. We are, unfortunately, left in doubt as to what became of the boy. If he is like the average small boy, however, his soul was stirred with unalloyed delight over the rumper he kicked up. And whenever he has a chance to whistle "Bedelia" in a crowded car again he may be depended upon to take advantage of it, if only for the prospect of making more trouble.

Origin of "Yankee."
To The Salt Lake Herald:
Will you please give me the true origin of the word Yankee, and just in which part of the United States they had their origin? R. C. Ogden, Aug. 4.

The origin of the term is uncertain, but it is supposed to be derived from the word Yankess or Yengess, a name said to have been given by the Massachusetts Indians to the English colonists and supposed to be an Indian corruption of the word English.

The Modern Store: Moderate Prices

For Friday and Saturday.

Those ladies who have taken advantage of the bargains made possible by the auction sale of the New York firm of Sweetser, Pembroke & Company, have reaped well this week.

Seldom have such goods been offered for the money—being first class linens, domestics and summer goods at an average of nearly half prices. It is all owing to the fortunate purchase.

Hosiery and Vests at Your Prices.

Our hosiery trade has steadily increased since the opening of the store. This speaks well for quality, correct style where style is necessary, and for courteous attention to customers. Especially is the trade big on Fridays and Saturdays, when specials are offered. It has become known that these specials are to be depended upon and that they mean bargains.

Infants' silk hose has been a strong seller. The qualities and shades seem to be just what the mothers are anxious for. For two days the 6-cent quality is offered at 3c.

There is a certain quality of hose which has given such excellent satisfaction to the ladies that we now call it the Keith-O'Brien special. It is the best value for a quarter we have seen. It is like ribbed, double heel, toe and sole, and has a full fashioned foot. All sizes from 3 to 10 are shown.

VERY NEAT AT THE PRICE.

Ladies' Swiss ribbed silk vests will attract attention because they are reduced for two days. Around the top, and the armholes, which are lace trimmed, there is a tape. The two lines are sold at 3c and 5c, respectively, but for two days only you can have them for a quarter.

Big Sale in Fine Toilet Soap.

Corsage Bouquet toilet soap—and a higher grade of toilet soap is not made—is offered as a special for two days. If you want something choice you will find it in these goods. The soap by the box sells at 50 cents everywhere. Included in the sale are 250 boxes—yours at a box, 35c.

Bargains in a Small Lot of Hand Bags

Beyond question we sell more hand bags than any other store—traveling men say twice as many. At any rate those which we show have style. Being a regular $2.50 quality, naturally there are on the inside a pocketbook and a card case. This splendid line—of which we have but 25 left—will be closed out at $1.25.

Big Boys' and Young Men's Straw Hats

The line shows many values reaching to $2.00. Being a little late in the season the remainder of the line is being closed out at 75c. There isn't a hat in the lot worth less than $1.50. The hats are in the prevailing styles. It will pay to buy for future use, at only 75c.

Two more days remain for the 5-cent ribbon, the values of which reach to 10 and 20 cents. It is in satin taffetas and taffetas—and have been much sought after at only a nickel a yard.

GARDNER DAILY STORE NEWS.

These sultry days compel men to wear Light Underwear, But it is the combined force of Dependable Qualities and Moderate Prices that influence them to wear the Gardner kind.

It means the most coolness at the least cost, And that's what most men are seeking just now.

The kind you want is here somewhere between 50c and $10 a suit.
